HACU is not liable for any accidents or items that are stolen while you are volunteering for HACU.

I want to take this opportunity to welcome you and thank you for your extremely generous offer to volunteer your time and energy to HACU. Through the efforts of people like you who freely donate their time and talents to our organization, we can make a difference.

HACU is a non-profit organization involved in many crucial endeavors aimed at enhancing educational opportunities for Hispanics. HACU's Annual Conference provides a unique forum for the sharing of information and ideas for the best and most promising practices in the education of Hispanics. The three-day conference is expected to attract more than 1,400 leaders from higher education, corporate, government, philanthropic, public policy and community ranks, as well as hundreds of top Hispanic higher education student leaders

We are grateful of your decision to donate time, energies, and talents to HACU without any pay. We want to emphasize that we are truly grateful for your decision and hope you find your volunteer service to be a fulfilling and satisfying experience. Again, we thank you for the valuable donation of your time and effort to the mission of HACU.
