To the impressive roster of winter sports experts at Camp Hale, mountain training center, has been added Friedl Pfeifer, Austrian-born skier and climber, who formerly headed the Sun Valley ski school in Idaho.

Pfeifer, winner of Europe's famed gold Kandahar combined down hill and slalom race in 1936, was welcomed at Camp Hale last week by Sgt. Walter Prager, coach of several Dartmouth college ski teams.

Other notables at Camp Hale include Torger Tøkle, the Norwegian world champion ski jumper; Sgt. Peter Gabriel, Swiss mountain guide; Ralph Townsend, eastern combined cross country and jumping champion; and Lt. Everett Bailey, former Vermont university coach.
