

Air-WAC Recruiters Open Denver Office

LOOKING FOR WACS—Headquarters for the Air-WAC enlisting team to recruit women for WAC jobs in the Army Air Forces will open today in the Public Service Bldg. Recruiters are, left to right, Corp. Marian Forte, Tech. (fourth grade) Tryssa Kellett, Second Lt. Beverly Lindstrom, Second Lt. Louis Levine (seated), Tech. Sgt. Rayburn Carroll, First Sgt. Robert E. Payne, Second Lt. Robert E. Hixon (seated) and Staff Sgt. Barney H. Havens.

An Air-WAC enlisting team for Denver and seven nearby counties will open headquarters today in the Public Service Bldg.

Eight persons comprise the group with Lt. Louis Levine of New York City in charge. The team will visit Gilpin, Summit, Jefferson, Arapahoe, Elbert, Douglas and Clear Creek Counties, in addition to Denver.

Team members are Lt. Robert E. Hixon of Oakland, Calif., a bomber pilot recently returned from the South Pacific; Lt. Beverly E. Lindstrom of Berkeley, Calif.; First Sgt. Robert Payne of Evansville, Ind.; Staff Sgt. Barney Havens of Steuben, Wis., a base photographer who recently returned from the Aleutians; Tech. (4 grade) Tryssa

C. Kellett of Savannah, Ga.; Corp. Elizabeth N. Forte of Boston, Mass., and Tech. Sgt. Rayburn Carroll of Diboll, Texas, a radio operator veteran of New Guinea, the Solomons, New Britain and the Bismarck Sea. He has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, and has received four presidential citations.